

UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT
EASTERN DISTRICT OF CALIFORNIA

-----oo0oo-----

RYAN M. HUCKINS, JR.,
Plaintiff,
v.
AMAZON.COM SERVICES LLC,
Defendant.

No. 2:24-cv-01492 WBS CSK

ORDER

-----oo0oo-----

Following entry of judgment in its favor (Docket No. 18), defendant timely submitted a bill of costs (Docket No. 19). Plaintiff has filed objections to the bill of costs, arguing that defendant had not met its burden to show the costs were necessarily incurred. (Docket No. 20.)

Without any further explanation or supporting documentation, the court is unable to assess from the bill of costs whether such costs were necessarily incurred under Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 54(d)(1), 28 U.S.C. § 1920, and Eastern District of California Local Rule 292.

1 Accordingly, defendant is given 14 days from the date
2 of this Order to submit documentation in support of its bill of 3 costs and explaining why such costs were necessarily incurred in 4 this case. Plaintiff may have 7 days from defendant's filing to 5 submit a response.

6 IT IS SO ORDERED.

7 Dated: July 18, 2025

8 WILLIAM B. SHUBB
9 UNITED STATES DISTRICT JUDGE